MOVEMENT FOR A NEW HOSPITAL

Trustees Meet Friends of Institution Last Night.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

To Cost $50,000--Commitetee on Ways and Means Composed of Representative Citizens Appointed.

The immediate erection of a new building for the Alexandria Hospital, to cost not less than $50,000, and the appointment of an executive committee of fifteen prominent citizens to devise ways and means to raise funds for its construction, were urged at a meeting of the board of trustees which was held last night in the rooms of the chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was a most enthusiastic one and the members present were unanimous in their determination to start at once the work of collecting funds for the new building. In addition to the trustees there were present a number of business men who promised their support.

Among those attending the meeting were the following: Worth Hulfish, William B. Smoot, Robert S. Jones, James W. Roberts, M. L. Dinwiddie, Hunt Foberts, S. F. Dyson, William Campbell, James M. Duncan, William A. Moore, Jr., Rev. Edgar Carpenter, E. C. Dunn, Arthur Herbert, Jr., Robert L. Payne, Julian Y. Williams, John T. Harrison, Albert D. Brockett, Gardner L. Boothe, Carroll Pierce, J. K. M. Norton, C. S. Taylor Burke and James T. Poston.

Worth Hulfish, president of the Board of Trustees, presided, and after stating the object of the meeting called Gardner L. Boothe, to the chair. Mr. Hulfish spoke as follows:

"You have been called together this evening to consider the welfare and possible betterment of an institution of our city that is of great importance to every man, woman and child in this community, as well as to our neighbors and kindred in the adjoining counties. I refer to the Alexandria Hospital. How it originated, its many years of usefulness to suffering humanity of every class, and its present needs is well known to all of you.

"What our noble women have done in the past for this good work, was well done, and great numbers who have been sick, hungry and weary will remember them with loving gratitude. Its presents needs, really demands our best attention, and sincere efforts towards securing a larger building and better facilities for the comfort of those who may be sick or injured.

"Some years ago many of our citizens wanted bettter streets, we got together, mapped out a plan, made the effort and now have streets that we are proud of. Better light at night, and improved sanitary conditions were needed, and we have them. Better school buildings, and play grounds for the children were demanded and we are getting them. Now we want a better hospital and the same efforts will get it. Gentlemen, tne matter is before you for consideration.

"The managers hope there will be such co-operation and the determination on your part that success must surely follow and to this end without your permission I will call to the chair one whom you all know and we are glad that he is one of us. One who has been closely identified with the hospital for years as one of the trustees, and like others present, has ever been ready and willing to help in any movement that uplifted or benefitted his fellow men:. I refer to Gardner L. Boothe, who will now take charge of this meeting."

A statement of the needs of the hospital was made by Mr. A. D. Brockett, who recently paid a visit to the institution to find out its exact condition.

After considerable discussion of the project the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Be it Resolved: That a new hospital be built in the City of Alexandria, at a cost of not less than $50,000, and be it further resolved that a committee of fifteen be appointed by the president of the board of trustees to solicit contributions for a new hospital and to make a report as early as possible to the board of trustees."

The same committe was also asked to investigate the condition, capacity and size of the present hospital and grounds and the same location and the cost of a new hospital fulfilling the requirements of the city.

President Hulfish said he would announce the names of the committee of fifteen within the next few days.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Former King Manuel of Portugal and his bride of less than a month are on the verge of seperation, according to advices received from Munich. The cause of the estrangement of the royal couple is not given, although numerous rumors, more or less scandalous, have been in circulation since the Princess Augusta Victoria was taken ill on her honeymoon and coinpelled to enter a Munich hospital. The princess is quoted as saying under no circumstances will she live with Manuel again.

Pope Pius has been forbidden to hold any audiences for at least a week. Dr. Amici, who has been in constant attendance upon him for the last few days says he is not suffering from any malady, being merely run down because of overwork. At present he is spending most of his time in bed by order of the physician. The direct cause of the Pope's indisposition is now stated to be exhaustion, due to receiving 6,000 pilgrims last Tuesday.

Mrs. George G. Getty, noted horsewoman and society leader of Maryland, was killed instantly in front of her home yesterday afternoon when her favorite riding horse, which she was driving in harness for the first time, became frightened and ran away with Mrs. Getty at the time of the accident was her 16-year-old daughter, Mildred, who jumped and was not injured. Mrs. Getty was a favorite as a child of the late President Cleveland, who was wont to visit the home of her father, the late Joseph Burr, at Colesville, Md., where the latter owned a large farm.

Advices have been received in Vienna of the capture of Diskovo and Orchrida by Albanians after determined resistance on the part of the Servian defenders. Large quantities of arms ,ammunition, and provisions were taken by the victors in both of the towns. Trofend is reported to be surrounded and about to fall. The appalling statistics of Bulgaria's losses in the last two wars are now in the war department at Sofia. They show that the total killed was 44,892 and wounded, 104,585 of whom 10,000 will be disabled for life.

Joseph O'Brien, who was arrested Saturday night on suspicion of having attacked and killed 7-year-old Israel Goldman and then thrown his nude body among some bushes on the golf links of the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club, near Philadelphia, has confessed that he had committed the crime. O'Brien, the police, announced, admitted having taken the boy to the outskirts, where the deed was committed, after a street car conductor had identified him as the man who was with the boy Friday night. The prisoner said he had killed the child because he had called his (O'Brien's) mother a foul name.

John Moriarty, a former puglilist, died in St. Louis yesterday of injuries received in a fist fight with Sergt. Herman Ohler, of the United States army. Miss Helen Martin, whose boast that the soldier was so gallant that he would drink wine from her slipper, started the trouble, has announced that she is engaged to the victor in the fray. It is stated that she gave the rivals to understand before the battle that she would wed the one who was victorious. Since his retirement from the ring Moriarty had been a confectioner, and fell in love with Miss Martin, who lives near his shop.

While making an address at a big political meeting last night at Cooper Union, New York, at which John Purroy Mitchel, fusion candidate for mayor, and other fusion candidates were formally notified of their nomination, Timothy L. Woodruff, former lieutenant governor of the State of New York, was stricken with an illness which two doctors who had been hurriedly summoned to his side diagnosed as a stroke of paralysis.

SULZER READY TO SPRING SENSATION

Will Give Proofs of Conspiracy When He Takes The Stand.

MAY END CASE TODAY.

Expected to Relate Details Of Tammany Scheme to Oust Him And Obtain Control of State.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The fight to remove Governor Sulzer from office today centered on his alleged stock speculative deals. Sulzer is expected to take the stand late today or early tomorrow. Practically all of the evidence regarding his campaign contributions is now on the impeachment court records.

The court, in ruling out evidence tending to support the charge that he traded his approval of local bills for his direct primary legislation, practically eliminated that particular allegation, which was article seven of the impeachment indictment.

When the trial was resumed today the attorneys for the managers were hopeful that they could conclude their direct case today. With the testimony of Governor Sulzer part of which may deal with the dictograph evidence he is said to have obtained from Tammany tools.

The statement that Sulzer would testify, and that he expected to open the door to a wide review of his charge that the present proceedings are a part of a plot against him, caused a change in plans. The prosecution's attorneys do not know how far the court will permit the accused to go in his allegations. So they have decided to await this complete story and then call witnesses to take issue with his allegations.

It is the plan of the attorneys for the defense to move for a dismissal of the various charges as soon as the prosecution rests. There is a chance that the decision on this point may give a line-up of the members of the court

Subpoena servers in the employ of the prosecution were sent to Buffalo early today. It is understood that they will subpoena former State Chairman William J. Connors to tell of an alleged contribution he made to Governor Sulzer last fall. In addition, it is said that a number of prominent Erie county Democrats will be asked about contributions they are alleged to have made.

FATALLY STABBED.

Held Five Aces in Poker Game, and is Dying.

Sharon, Pa., Sept .30—"Ed" Carter who had the misfortune to hold five aces in the game of draw poker play in a downtown resort, is in the Buhd Hospital dying from many knife cuts. His face,head and body was literally hacked to pieces.

"Ed" Davidson, who is said to be one of the players who didn't like Carter's way of playing the game, was arrested charged with aggravated assault and battery. Two other players, who, it is said, also wielded their knives on Carter, have not yet been captured, although the police say they know their identity.

WILL RESUME OLD STATUS.

Will Again Take Name of Washington-Virginia Railway Company.

The Washington Utilities Company, blocked in its plans by the LaFollette amendment as interpreted by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia and unwilling to further contend or to undertake a long test case in the courts, has decided to reincarnate the Washington-Virginia Railway Company and to place it in the same position, as to securities, &c., as the absorbed company was before the merger of November 24, 1912.

The action leading to this decision was the refusal of the Public Utilities Commission to grant authorization to a proposed issue of $10,000,000 bonds by the Washington Utilities Company. Of the proposed issue of $998,000 would have been put out at once, given to the common and preferred shareholders of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, as provided in the terms of the merger.

Three million five hundred thousand dollars was to have been held by the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, as a guarantee for the underlying bonds of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon and the Washington, Alexandria and Falls Church Railway lines, forming the properties owned by the Washington-Virginia Railway.

The proposed issue of bonds was approved by the Virginia Corporation Commission, but the reason for the short lines of road in the District of Columbia aproval had to be obtained of the Public Utilities Commission.

After hearing arguments the Public Utilities Commission took the matter under advisement, and subsequently rendered an opinion declining to authorize the issue of bonds on the ground that under the terms of the merger agreement the Washington Utilities Company would acquire more than 20 per cent of the capital stock of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, a public utility corporation doing business in the District of Columbia, which, in their opinion, was contrary to the terms of the anti-merger law, which became effective March 4, 1913.

INSTALS BLOCK SIGNAL.

Southern Railway Insures Safety of Passengers on Part of Route.

The Southern Railway Company is now installing an automatic electric block signal system on the main line between Seminary, Va., and Orange, Va., a distance of eighty miles, all double track.

This system, when completed, will provide continuous automatic signal protection for trains from Orange into the Washington Terminal Station, giving in all a total of 198 miles of double track protected by this system on important stretches of the Washington-Atlanta main line.

The signals will be the usual three position type, using red, green and white lights at night for the "stop", "caution," and "proceed" indications. The interlocking plants controlling switches will be equipped with power signals in the towers and on the signals. Annunciators will be provided to announce the approach of trains in both directions at each of these towers.

The protective system represents the latest product of engineering science and greatly will facilitate the safety of train operations in this territory.

OPPOSES PRESENT VOTING SYSTEM

Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim Will Urge Change of Representation.

VIRGINIA'S 16 VOTES.

Fractional System of Voting in Smaller Dioceses Would Bring About Equality.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Led by the Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany in Washington, a large number of the clergy of that faith will make a determined effort to change the present representation in the house of deputies at the general Episcopal Convention which will open in New York, October 8th.

The Rev. Dr. McKim is president of the house of deputies, and for a long time has been identified with the movement to adjust the representation therein as it now stands, on the ground that diocesses with less than 3,000 communicants now have the same voting power as those with more than 50,000 communicants. Other prominent clergymen and laymen oppose the present system as undemocratic and un-American,and believe they will be able to bring about a change.

"Under our present system of representation the two dioceses of Virginia and Southern Virginia, with 198 clergy and 31,208 communicants, have in the general convention sixteen votes, while the six dioceses of Kansas City, Indianapolis, Springfield, Dallas, Delawtre, and Duluth, with 186 clergy and 24,298 communicants have forty-eight votes," said the Rev. Dr. McKim recently.

"Legislation adopted under these circumstances may utterly fail to reflect the mind of the church, and may therefore fail to command the loyal support of the several diocesses. Moreover, should any vital issue of Christian doctrine or ritual or ecclesiastical policy, upon which the mind of the church was sharply divided, be decided by a technical majority of votes which really represented a small minority of the communicants, the peace and unity of the church would be seriously imperilled.

"By agreeing upon a certain number of clergymen in the diocese as a unite, in a vote by diocesses and orders, and by adopting the fractional system of voting in the smaller dioceses, it will be possible to approximate equality of representation without reducing or increasing the present number of deputies from the dioceses.' '

PLEADS SELF-DEFENSE.

A. M. West Gives His Version of Slaying Dr. W. J. Clontz.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 30.—Declaring that he killed Dr. W. J. Clontz in self-defense, after the latter had threatened to take his life, A. M. West made a sensational statement in his own behalf when placed on trial for his life for killing the prominent physician at Alexander last month. The defendant swore that he was a member of a committee appointed by a secret order to investigate certain charges of immorality against the physician inconsistent with the principles of the order, and that while the report had not been submitted, Dr. Clontz had threatened to kill him. The defendant swore that he discharged Dr. Clontz as his family physician after certain revelations.

Nelson Waldrop swore the defendant shot the physician before the latter made any move towards him. He claims to have witnessed the killing.

Charles Rideout, accidentally shot while hunting, died at the hospital in Martinsburg, W. Va.

Arthur Mankin, charged with assaulting his wife, was sentenced to serve 90 days in jail.

CANAL IS COMPLETED.

Tremendous Project Cost United States $400,000,000.

Colon, Panama, Sept. 30.—The Panama Canal has been completed.

Today, at word from Colonel Goethals, the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific will be joined, except for the intervening locks. Through four 26-inch pipes inserted in the Gamboa dike, the waters of Gatun lake will flow into the Culebra Cut, the only portion of the canal in which at present, there is no water.

It is expected that by December the waters in Gatun Lake will have risen high enough to bring the waters in the entire canal up to the deep water level, when the large ships can be sent through.

Without the mighty Gatun lake, a large artificial body of water made by impounding the waters of the Chagres river in the valley, the entire canal system would be a failure. Gatun Lake is the feeder of the canal. At one end is the Culebra cut, leading down through the Pedro Miguel locks into the Miraflores Lake, and from there through the Miraflores Locks into the inlet from the bay of Panama. At the other end of Gatun Lake the canal leads through a series of three pairs of locks into the channel, which has been dug to Limon Bay. The water level in Gatun Lake,when the full supply is accumulated, will be 87 feet above the sea level.

In November, 1910, the first American steam shovel made its appearance in the canal zone, and by the following year every bit of the antiquated machinery used by the French had been superceded by modern equipment.

Forty thousand men constitute the canal force. These men, together with their families total about 65,000 persons, all of whom are dependent upon the government.

WATCHING THE POLITICAL SKY

Politicians in Washington Looking After Three Contests.

NEW YORK'S CONFLICT

Progressive Movements Causing Some Anxiety — Democratic Prospects Said to be Very Good.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The contests in Massachusetts, New Jersey, and West Virginia, are commanding the careful scrutiny of the politicians about Washington just at present Contests of one sort and another are on elsewhere. The New York mayoralty fight, for instance, is being watched by pretty nearly everybody.

And the real question which everybody wants answered, and answered not by theories, but by actual election figures, is what is happening to the Progressives. Along with that goes the question whether the Republican party is coming back, and whether the Democratic party is gaining or losing ground.

The fight in Massachusetts already is animated, and will be much more so before the election. Congressman Augustus P. Gardner, having been nominated for governor on the Republican ticket, after a spectacular contest in the primaries, the next thing to be determined is whether Mr. Gardner, who is running as a Progressive Republican, can be elected in a hard triangular campaign. The Democratic candidate, David I. Walsh, heads a strong ticket. The Progressive ticket is headed by Charles Sumner Bird.

Whether the result will be changed in any considerable measure by the tariff situation is not easy to say. The new law will have barely gone into effect when the election is held, and will not have had time to show what its actual results will be.

On the whole, the situation on the face of things in Massachusetts looks best for the Democrats, just as it does in New Jersey and West Virginia. In each instance, the three-cornered nature of the contests gives them the advantage.

Expectation is that President Wilson will be sustained by his home State, New Jersey.

WAVE OF CRIME IN BERLIN.

Daily Murders and Crimes of Various Forms Keep Police Busy.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—A remarkable wave of crime has swept over Berlin in the past fortnight, causing one of the newspapers to comment that "Berlin can now compete as the seat of bloody crimes with the darkest New York." There has been a murder for nearly every day during that period, in addition to several unsuccessful attempts to commit murder.

The crimes took various forms. A house owner shot a tenant who was moving out. The owner of a hotel of loose reputation killed an indignant father who came to complain of happenings in the house. Two women of the working classes were killed by their paramours. A deceived husband shot down his rival. A man murdered his aged wife as she slept. An employe of a bathing establishment killed the owner, a woman, after a quarrel about losses on horse races. A seamstress was enticed into the woods by a bogus matrimonial agent and murdered. Still another man tried to end the lives of himself and wife and grown daughter by turning on the gas at night.

Murders have become so frequent that the theory of the periodicity of crime has advanced to account for them. A Berlin newspaper editorially questions whether the city is not growing permanently more criminal, but finds some comfort in the fact that a majority of the murders were crimes of passion, rather than premeditated ones. It suggests that the hot wave that passed over Berlin about the end of August and the early part of September caused the remarkable increase in crime and that men give way to their passions more readily in hot weather than in days of moderate temperature.

GIVEN 90 DAYS IN JAIL

Wifebeater is Made Eligible For Service on the State Roads

Among the cases on the docket of Police Court this morning was that of Arthur Mankin, who had beeu arrested at the instance of his wife on the charge of assault and cruel treatment generally. She exhibited a broken finger in attestation of her charges.

Last Sunday morning Mankin, who conducts a shop in the western section of the cty, according to the evidence, was engaged in playing cards with some of his customers or friends when he became incensed at his daughter and wife and the assault upon the latter followed.

When asked if he had any reply to make to his wife's allegations, he started out by saying he had been drinking, and turning towards his wife suggested that if she give him another chance he might "make good."

The court "put it up" to the long-suffering wife to say what should be done with her liege lord, and she was given an opportunity to withdraw the charges she had preferred. But her patience had been exhausted, and she intimated plainly that she wanted something done with the prisoner. The latter was thereupon sentenced to jail for ninety days.

Before leaving the room the complainant thanked the court for the decisin and said she would enjoy tranquility for a season.

STYLISH HATS.

To be up-to-date in style it is essential that hats be of velvet, black preferred, or of variations of plush, velours or beavers, but the black velvet is the queen of this season's hats.

Most of the hats that have a brim are turned up at some angle to make a smart appearance, some at the back and others at the front. Ostrich feather tufts and plumes are also to be seen to a great extent this fall. Among the novelties in trim will be the butterfly made up in a large variety of gorgeous colors of feathers, lace, tulle, velvet or in metallic brocade, which will prove one of the fads of this season's wear.

From every indication of what will be this season's styles a wide latitude is observed in the fall models, and where feathers are used for trim it will the angle that the feather is placed which will make or mar the hat for the wearer.

The most popular feather trimmings are set high and will come in a large variety of colors, enough to suit almost any taste. It has been predicted that much ribbon trimming would be used this fall but as yet not much has been seen, the feather trim predominating.

Negro With a Pistol Threatens to Kill Woman—Had Just Been Released.

Henry Little, colored, was brought before the Police Court Saturday morning to answer the charge of assaulting Martha Magers, colored. He was fined $10, and yesterday was released when his employer paid $5, he being unwilling to expend any more upon him.

Little, upon being released, started on the war path again, making a colored woman named Emma Murray his target. He used threatening language towards the woman, brandished a pistol and said he would use the weapon and run away from the city.

Upon the arrival of officers in the court bounded by Prince, Duke, Alfred and Patrick streets Little threw the pistol out a window, and the officers having secured the weapon took the negro in custody.

He was brought before the Police Court this morning when the Magers woman added her testimony to that of Emma Murray. Little denied the charge of throwing the pistol out of the window, but it was postively identified. He was fined $20 and in addition was told he must furnish bond for his good behavior in future.

$25.00 Suits for Women

The Tailleur Suit for women this season is displayed in so many new and distinctive effects that choice generally is simply one of preference.

The extreme newness in lines, beauty and richness of materials and the great variety of models is emphasized to the fullest in our showing at $25.00

Smart, strictly tailored models, extreme cutaway effects, much like the men's full dress coat, modified cutaway and pretty blouse effects are much in favor.

Serges, broadcloths, cheviots, wool, poplins, marelasse, fancy cloths, and men's mixtures. Regulation sleeves, fancy cut sleeves, and the new Mandarin sleeve, and also sleeves cut in one with the body of the jacket. Much variation is shown in the new collars;; long shawl effects, mannish types with wide revers,, inlaid velvet collars, and others fastening close to the neck. Dark, rich shades are decidedly prominent, and include black, brown, navy, Copenhagen, mahogany, and taupe.

We invite special attention to the display at $25.00, the value being far superior to anything we have previously shown at the price.

Also showing at this time a very wide range of suits, in sizes 39 to 51, made of black serges and cheviots, designed expressly for the stout woman. Thes, too, are priced at $25.00

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

WOMAN FINED

Girls Ill From Indulging in Coca-Cola and Ice Cream Soda.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30—On the charge of doing business on Sunday, Mary Simon, of 1509 West Cary St., was fined $5 in the police court yesterday, the case having grown out of an experience four young girls had in her place Sunday when they were made ill by drinking Coca-Cola and ice cream soda.

For want of direct evidence Justice tice Crutchfield determined not to hold the woman responsible for the illness which overtook the girls, who gave their names as Mary and Adele Knowles, of 2418 West Cary street, and Emma and Mary Martin, of 2412 West Cary street.

Three of the girls, according to the testimony, drank Coca-Cola and the other drank ice cream soda. They became ill soon afterwards and showed symptoms of having been drugged.

Other persons testified that they ...e not made ill by indulging in ...me drinks.

... woman admitted throwing ...he remaining supply of soda, ...and Coca-Cola which she ...tock.

... H. Randolph, who attended ... said that he was unable to ...at made them sick.

Justice Crutchfield directed the police to make further investigation in an effort to get at the bottom of the matter.

TO BE OPERATIVE TOMORROW.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30.—The resolution signed by twelve ministers of the Episcopal Church of Richmond, by which they agree not to perform a marriage ceremony before the good health of the groom is certified to by the physician of the bride, or a physician approved by him, goes into effect tomorrow. Rev. W. Meade Clark, D. D., rector of St. James', signed the resolution also effective for his church January 1, 1914.

It is said by the ministers that one hundred prominent medical men of the city have signified their intention of co-operating with the pastors in their effort to eliminate the double standard of morals. The action of the Richmond pastors follows a recommendation of the Episcopal diocesan council of Virginia made in the spring.

Thomas Edward Eubank, about 65 years old, living in Boolingbrook St., was found dead in his bed Sunday morning. He hed been in a partial invalid for some time as the result of paralysis, but was able to go about. It is supposed he suffered a fatal stroke during the night.

FINED FOR SPEEDING.

Judge Crutchfield Seeks to Learn if Autoist was Intoxicated.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30.—W. H. Palmer Leigh, 504 West Franklin street ,was fined $100 and cost yesterday in Justice Crutchfield's court for speeding his automobile and running into a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Bowe, 1610 Park Avenue.

Justice Crutchfield sharply questioned all the witnesses as to Mr. Leigh's condition at the time of the collision. "I want to know if he was drunk,' 'was the question the judge asked each witness. The court was assured that the defendant was sober at the time.

"I have determined to double my customary fine of $100 and impose a stiff jail sentence on any automobile driver convicted of speeding or reckless driving while under the influence of liquor," stated the court. "I say this in explanation of my line of questioning in this case."

BLEW OUT HIS EYES.

Horrible Accident Yesterday at Radford, Furnace.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 30.—As a result of a premature explosion of dynamite at the West End furnace of the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Co., at Radford, early Saturday, Robert Lewis, a white man about 40 years old, is at the Shenandoah Hospital in a pitiable condition. His face is cut into shreds, and the sight of both eyes destroyed.

FORTS FOR THE CAPES.

Garrison Asks Condemnation of Site For Bay.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Condemnation proceedings will settle the dispute between army engineer officers and landowners at Cape Henry, Va., over the price to be paid by the government for a site for the great fortifications planned for the defense of Chesapeake Bay. Secretary Garrison yesterday asked the Department of Justice to institute the proceedings.

The department has available about $150,000 for this tract of land, but the army officers say the owners are holding out for an exorbitant figure.

Secretary Garrison, with Major General Wood, chief of staff, and Brigadier General Weaver, chief of coast artillery, will go to Fort Monroe to pass upon the estimates prepared by the engineers for the expansion of that post.

Deaths in Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Ida Spooner Boisseau, widow of Patrick Boisseau, died very suddenly Monday night in her home in Hinton street. She had been in delicate health for some time, but lately seemed greatly improved. Her death was caused by heart trouble. She was the daughter of the late Thomas R. and Mrs. Ella Spooner Dunn, a distinguished lawyer of his day in Petersburg. She was a woman devoted to good works.

GRIEF-STRICKEN PARENTS.

Finds Son Dead Upon Returning From Funeral of Daughter.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30—Leaving a new made grave in the family ground in Powhatan county into which they had just seen laid the body of their fifteen-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, who died Thursday night of typhoid fever, Mr. and Mrs. George Abbott Weisiger returned Friday night to their home at 801 East Leigh street, to find the dead body of their only son, Abbott, aged eight years, who yesterday afternoon acidentally shot himself while handling a pistol at the home of his aunt, Mrs. C. C. Boisseau, 635 North Eighth street.

The grief-stricken parents, met at the door of their home by Mrs. Boisseau, who, in broken voice, told them of the new tragedy which had visited them, were prostrated.

AFTER ELOPERS.

Mother and Daughter Disappear From New Jersey.

Richmond, Sept. 30.—The climax of a family elopement from Jamesburg, N. J., is promised for Richmond, according to dispatches received from New York, for a mother and daughter, accused of taking part in a double run-away, are said to be living here now. Armed with warrants sworn out last week in the New Jersey village, where the affair created a sensation, the husband of the woman, Alexander Ballantyne, is said to be on his way to Richmond.

When Ballantyne found his wife and daughter gone, he also discovered that $700 in cash and jewelry valued at $2,000 were missing. Also the clerk at his hotel, the principal one in Jamesburg, was absent. The clerk, Eugene Keenan, is alleged to have eloped with Mrs. Ballantyne. Arthur Smith, twenty years old, star pitcher, of the Jamesburg Baseball Club, is alleged to have eloped with the daughter.

Ballantyne accuses his wife, who is forty years old, and a grandmother, with bigamy and embezzlement. He preferred the same charge against Keenan, also forty years old. His daughter, who was a church worker and the village belle, and Smith, he charged with embezzlement.

George H. Bixby, a millionaire of Long Beach, Cal., charged with having contributed to the downfall of young women, was found not guilty by a jury at Los Angeles, last night. The charges were preferred by Cleo Helen Barker and Marie Brown-Levy, minor habitues of a resort. Bixby's defense was that he had visited the place only as a philanthropist who had spent thousands of dollars to save young girls, and had been requited by being made the victim of a blackmail conspiracy.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 30.—Andrew Patrick, a negro crabber from Hampton, was shot and killed in the woods at Ocean View, near the Arrow Club, yesterday morning. The shooting is alleged to have been done by Al Rainey, a South American negro, who made his escape. Flourishing his pistol in several directions Rainey is alleged to have yelled as he fled: "Tell 'em I've gone this way."

The killing is supposed to have followed a row over a game of crap.

OYSTERS' VIRTUES TO BE PUBLISHED.

Oyster growers and dealers are aroused to the fact that their product needs publicity, and that the best way to combat the libels of those who are fighting the oyster industry is to proclaim the virtues of the great American bivalve. Accordingly, they have launched upon a vigorous campaign and are calling upon their friends in every city to celebrate an "oyster week."

The Richmond News-Leader says that if ever producers had a good case, the oystermen have. They market a distinctive product which is easily digested, of high food value and succulent beyond the praise of pen. Theirs is the winter food of the gods, the choice viand of Olympian banquets.

Then too, the oyster, if properly handled, is an extremely healthy food. The old slanders and libels to the contrary have been disproved in detail; the oystermen have sanitary methods of shipping; the rocks from which oysters are now tonged lie beneath waters free from contamination and beyond the reach of pollution. Instead of causing disease, as interested persons have alleged, the oyster is among the safest and best of foods.

But the most appealing argument in behalf of the oyster at this time is its cheapness. Practically every other food has increased in price. Sirloin steak is beyond the means of the average man; pork chops, the poor man's solace, now find a place only on the tables of the well-to-do; eggs and butter, roasts and milk, chickens and hams are all more expensive. But the royal oyster, fit food for princes, can be purchased at the same low price.

Publicity for the oyster means prosperity to Virginia. Anything that increases the consumption of the product helps Tidewater. Within our bays and rivers oysters are grown every year which, if properly conserved and marketed, would yield a revenue of $7,000,000. Much of this vast wealth is now lost by unwise legislation and inefficient regulations. If our new governor will give attention to the betterment of this industry and will aid in the plan to get a wider market for the oyster, he will win a distinct title to the esteem not of Tidewater alone, but of all Virginia.

The possibilities of this great industry are those of our own efforts.

While hunting squirrels, former State Senator W. C. Grimes was accidentally shot in the face by Oscar Conner, near Keyser, W. Va.

WIVES SHOULD TAKE THE INITIATIVE.

About once a month some long-suffering wife appears at the station house and sobbing asks a warrant against a delinquent husband. The charge is generally non-support, but occasionally the more serious one of assault is preferred. In most cases a reconciliation is effected, the delinquent husbands promising to turn over new leaves, and the confiding weaker vessels conclude to give their cruel lords other opportunities by which they can make their life partners and their innocent offspring more contented in the battles of life.

For several months it has been the purpose of the Police Court to make it plain to all sufferers from drunken and improvident husbands that the former have it in their power to bring about better conditions if they will wave the law over the heads of their thoughtless and cruel despots.

One of these chronic cases was on the docket of the Police Court this morning, during the examination of which it was shown that last Sunday morning, while the church bells were ringing, a husband was engaged in a game of cards with some of his associates, and while enjoying this diversion he became angry with his wife and daughter, and assaulted the former, breaking one of her fingers. The wife, very properly, refused to withdraw the charges at his suggestion and the accused was sent to jail for ninety days.

There are many long-suffering wives in all communities, men who should be their protectors and providers spending their earnings in riotous living and allowing their helpmates and little ones to want often for the necessaries of life. The wives can wield a weapon which is calculated to bring their husbands to their senses, and if all would follow the example of the plucky woman referred to above they would succeed in taming men who ignore their marriage vows.

WAR ON HIDDEN STILLS.

Moonshiner Captured in Bushbeating Campaign.

Richmond, Sept. 30.—Report of a sweeping raid through Wise county, in the course of which two moonshine stills were found and destroyed and one moonshiner captured, was received yesterday by Revenue Agent W. H. Chapman from Deputy Collector Hurt and Miller. In their widespread search for hidden distilleries revenue officers came upon traces of several moonshine plants which had bene quickly conveyed to safer sites.

On September 26 the two officers swooped down from Wise from the country near Norton and surprised two moonshiners at work making whisky at an illicit still. The officers were able to creep within thirty yards of the workers before their presence was detected, and they obtained ample evidence of guilt. When the two distillers fled the posse gave pursuit, and Deputy Collector Miller captured a man by the name of E. G. Collins. The other moonshiners made good his escape through the laurel and underbrush. The revenue men destroyed a fifty-gallon copper still, 1100 gallons of beer and a quantity of accessories.

Deputy Collectors Miller and Hurt made a successful raid near Lipp, in Wise county, on September 23 and destroyed a fifty-gallon copper still, a quantity of beer and other distilling apparatus. They failed to make arrests. Both raids were in the Sixth Virginia district, which was recently placed under Colonel Chapman's jurisdiction.

PROTEST AGAINST "SASS."

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept 30.—Indignant because the telephone company refused to disconnect the telephone of a society woman who "sassed" them, Miss Bernadino Schafer, chief operator, and twelve "hello" girls quit their jobs.

"Her language was too raw," they said. "We couldn't stand it."

AN EXPLANATION.

(Communicated.)

The statement in last night's Gazette that the Catholics had refused to cooperate in the fair to be given for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital, was one that would naturally place us in an unfavorable light before the community, the reason for such acton on their part not being stated. Under the laws of the present charter only a "Christian Protestant" can become a trustee or have any part in the management of the Hospita. Naturally the Catholics, as a body, can not be expected to take great interest in any organization from which they are excluded as active managers. Individually many will doubtless contribute to this good work.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA:

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria continued and held at the Court House of said city on Tuesday, September 23rd, 1913.

Present, Hon Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Clara J. J. Beckert, Complainant.
Vs. In Chancery.
Ferdinand C. G. Beckert, defendant.

An affidavit having been duly made as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process issued therein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court; it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit for custody of their infant children, and for general relief, and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy thereof be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to-wit: No. 405 8th St., S. E. Washington, D. C., as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the Clerk of this Court and that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of this court on or before the next rule day of this court

FATALLLY WOUNDS HIS WIFE.

Shoots Man Who Was With Her, Then Disappears Into Mountains.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 30.—James Caldwell, forty-five, a farmer living at Hemphill, eight miles from Waynesville, shot and fatally wounded his wife and seriously wounded Asbury Moody, also a farmer, a day or two ago. Mrs. Caldwell was shot twice in the breast. Moody received a bullet in the mouth, the latter wound not being considered fatal Caldwell, it is stated disappeared into the mountains after the shooting.

Details of the shooting are meagre, but it is stated that the trouble was of a domestic nature, and caused Caldwell to open fire on his wife and Moody while the two were talking in the road near the Caldwell home.

The doctors state that Mrs. Caldwell cannot recover.

REVOLUTION AT HAND.

Tom Mann Foresees Great Changes in World of Labor.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 30.—"The class war now being fought between labor and capital in the United Kingdom is not the dissatisfaction of a set of incapables, but the deliberate effort of serious-minded men, fully conscious of the causes of their poverty, and absolutely confident of their own ability to cure the same"

Tom Mann, the British labor leader, thus expressed himself last night at a mass-meeting in a local amusement park.

"Standards in the lives of workmen in the United Kingdom," he continued, "have been raised more by direct industrial action during the last five years than by parliamentary action during the preceding fifty years.

"Similar action is being taken in the United States, and at this hour greater activity is being shown by the American Federation of Labor than at any time during the last twenty-five years.

"The civilized world is confronted with the stupendous fact that an economic revolution is at hand. As one in favor of such a revolution, I am pleased with the hearty reception I have received throughout the United States, and with the great freedom of speech which has been allowed me. I had thought it might be different.

"The all-important purpose and the immediate aim of the movement I am advocating is the reduction of the hours of work internationally. Our ultimate aim is a six-hour day and a five and a half day working week. This eventually will eliminate unemployment.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Three persons were held without bail Friday afternoon by Chief Deputy Coroner Sellers, in Philadelphia to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of complicity in the death of Miss Meredith M. Dukes, 22 years old, of Shelbyville, Del., who died August 18 from an alleged operation at a house near Fiftieth and Arch street. Mrs. Martha Simmons was held as the principal in the case and Dr. Obert Summers as an accessory. Harry Leipsner, son of a former minister, who conducted an apartment house at the address where Miss Dukes died, was incriminated in the testimony yesterday as he was also held as an accessory.

Charles J. Doherty, engineer of the second section of the Springfield Express on the New Haven Railroad, which ran into the first section at Stamford last June, causing six deaths, died at his home in New Haven, Conn., early Friday. He had grieved constantly over the wreck, and this is believed to have caused his death. He was 31 years old, and leaves a wife and two small children. Ever since the accident Doherty had suffered from nervousness, his relatives say, and many times had told them there was constantly recurring to him the picture of a wreck victim, whose gray hair was matted with blood. He was so averse to his being alone that he frequently kept his young sons—4 and 5 years old—up until midnight for company.

On motion of the plaintiff, by its attorneys, supported by affidavit filed in this suit, it is ordered, that all creditors ,if any, of the Baltimore Bridge Co., a corporation, for labor and materials furnished and supplied in connection with the construction and completion of three steel towers for the wireless Telegraph Station at the United States Reservation, Arlington, Virginia, under a certain formal contract, under seal, between said Baltimore Bridge Company and the United States of America, dated June 13, 1911, are hereby notified, in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, that suit has been instituted herein by the United States of America to the use of Hugh Reilly Co., a corporation, claiming to have furnished and supplied materials used in the prosecution of the work under said contract, and wherein recovery is sought under the certain writing obligatory, entered into by and between said Baltimore Bridge Company, as principal, and the American Fidelity Co., as surety, to secure the performance of said contract, as well, also to secure prompt payment of claims to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of Thirty One Thousand, Six Hundred and Sixty-Three Dollars($31,663).

It is further ordered that any and all creditors of the Baltimore Bridge Company, if any there be, in the matter of the construction and completion of the three certain steel towers aforesaid, intervene in this action, file claim herein, and be made party thereto, on or before the Second Rules in October, 1913, to be held in the Clerk's Office of the said Court on the Third Monday in October, 1913; provided, a copy of this order be published for three successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, before said day.

WITNESS the Honorable Edmund Waddell, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 23d day of September, 1913, and in the 137th year of the independence of the United States of America.

TRAILS MISSING BROTHER.

C. C. James, of Roanoke, Va., Searches West for Fred M. James.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 30.—On what he hopes is the last part of a search that has continued nineteen years, taking him from coast to coast, C. C. James, once of Joplin, Mo., now of Roanoke, Va., arrived in Spokane this week seeking his brother, Fred M. James, aged forty-four years.

Since he dropped from the sight of his relatives Fred M. James is reported to have made a fortune in mining in the Spokane county and later to have changed his name to satisfy the strange idiosyncrasy that manifested itself from youth—concealing his whereabouts from his own family.

"I have traced Fred through Montana and Idaho down to nine and one-half years ago, but at Murray, Idaho, the trial was lost and I have been unable to get any trace of him further," said the brother. "Here and there I have met persons who have known him. One man in Montana told me he shook hands with him about a year ago. Another woman claimed to have been in communication with his wife as late as sixteen months ago and said they were at Dixon, Mont., but when I went to Dixon I could find no trace of him.

"We had a family reunion at Chattanooga, Tenn., a few weeks ago and father and mother, three sisters and another brother and myself, together with all the grandchildren, were present. The family circle was complete except for Fred. We then decided that I should look through the Spokane country for my brother and I have been one month on the road."

SWALLOWS HIS WATCH.

Alabama Man Puts Timepiece in Mouth—it Slips Down.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 30.—Somewhere inside R. P. Tallman there lies concealed a perfectly sound Swiss watch still ticking off the time of day probably. The watch was in his mouth, and for some unaccountable reason Tallman happened to swallow the small seven-day affair.

Tallman says he feels fine, and suffers no ill effects either from the watch or the "ticks." However, he doesn't think as a general proposition it is very good for the system to act as a jewel case for a watch. He will have an examination made, and it may be necessary to undergo an operation.

Tallman is employed by the R. G Dun Company, Woodward building Tallman took the watch down to his office and is at work as usual, with clockwork regularity. One of the many inconveniences he has to suffer, however, are frequent telephone messages from Frank Lloyd, assistant secretary to the board of commissioners. About every few minutes. Mr. Lloyd calls up his friend with such questions as "Are you still working on time? Do you feel run down this morning? And, if you have any time to spare, I would like to see you for a few minutes?"

AUTO CURFEW LAW.

Kansas City Plans to Stop the Deadly "Joy Riding."

Kansas City, Sept. 30.—Joy riding in this city, which has culminated in crimes or escapades that led to the arrest of youthful offenders, caused the introduction into the lower house of the City Council last night of an ordinance which prohibits girls and boys under 21 years of age from participating in wild motor car rides. A fine of from $100 to $500 is provided for the violation of this ordinance.

The ordinance provides that persons of opposite sex less than twenty-one years of age shall not be allowed to ride in a motor car after night unless accompanied by an adult or their parents, or unless they are brother and sister.

FATALLY BURNED.

Explosion of Gasoline Causes Injuries Which Result in Death of Young Man.

Weldon, N. C., Sept. 30.—Edward Picard, son of Rev. Mr. Picard, of the Episcopal Church at Jackson, lost his life in Northampton county a day or two ago in a horrible and peculiar manner. The young man was riding his motorcycle from Jackson to Seaboard, and was carrying a small jug of extra gasoline. This rested upon the engine of his machine. In some way it exploded and set young Picard's clothes on fire. He was terribly burned but lived for an hour after the accident.

TO WED IN VIRGINIA.

Danville Colored Girl Will Become Bride of Zulu Monogamist.

New York, Sept. 30.—Having won an education and a bride in America, Prince Nadikano Q. Cele, Jr., of Durban, Natal, Africa, is arranging to sail November 1 as a missionary to his people, the Zulus.

He will be married October 20, at Danville, Va., to Julia F. Smith, an American negro girl, who was a student at Hampton Institute.

By picking a foreign spouse, the prince saves his father, who is governor of a province in Zululand, twenty-five or thirty cows, the cost of a Zulu wife.

The prince was sent to this country nine years ago by his father, who had been converted to Christianity and who wanted to give one of his sons a Christian education. As a missionary, Prince Nadikano's expenses will be paid by Hampton Institute.

He intends to start a campaign against the polygamous customs of his people, some of whom have from ten to twenty-five wives.

It is believed that eight children were burned to death in a fire which started at midnight Friday in a three-story wooden structure in St. Francis street, Quebec. They were the children of Ulrich Trudel, owner of the building. There were five other families living in the same house. The father, mother and an older son, were saved from death, although severely burned. No trace has been found of one of the girls of the family. One child was dropped from the third story window and struck his head on the curb stone. It is believed he will die.

WANT DEBT SETTLED.

Virginia Will Ask Supreme Court for Judgment.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 30.—Attorney General Samuel W. Williams appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States today, asking that court to enter such an order as would compel West Virginia to make a proper settlement of the State debt matter.

More than a year ago the United States Supreme Court decided in favor of Virginia in regard to the principal of the debt, something more than $7,000,000, and suggested that the two states get together and compromise the interest. West Virginia, it is asserted, has shown no disposition either to propose a settlement of the principal or a compromise of the interest, a meeting of the debt commission of the two states having been without effect, as the West Virginia Commission had nothing to propose. Having failed, therefore, to secure an amicable settlement, it is the purpose of Virginia to press for a court settlement of principal and interest.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

North Carolinian is Killed by a Falling Tree.

Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 30.—Deeived by the fall of a tree, Norman Thaggard, eighteen years old, of Cedar Creek township, was literally crushed beneath the weight of the upper portion of a dead pine, broken off by the falling tree which he himself had felled. He died eighteen hours later.

Button, Button, Who ● Got the Button?

Most Everybody Now Has the Fame Hot Springs Liver Buttons.

Dangerous Calomel Not Needed.

Since Hot Springs Liver Buttons were created, constipation, lazy liver and all their train of consequent suffering have been unnecessary. All any one needs to do is take advantage of this discovery and bid their troubles fare well. Headaches, dullness and heavyness, poor complexion and irritability leave when constipation does; and constipation leaves for good when Hot Springs Liver Buttons are used.

Throw Away Calomel Right Now.

Calomel and all similar drugs are dangerous. Everybody knows that, and yet some continue to use them under the impression that it is necessary to rack their systems and suffer the ill effects in order to end constipation.

Hot Springs Liver Buttons are unfailing, thorough, pleasant in action, and leave none of the bad after effects true of more drastic drugs containing calomel, salts or oil. They will cleanse the bowels of the accumulated body refuse that poisons the blood. Thus headaches, dullness and nervous irritability quickly pass away. You will feel like a new person in a few hours.

Get Hot Springs Liver Buttons now—today. Have them on hand whether you need them right now or not. At druggists', 25c. Sample and 100 of our 17,000 testimonials mailed free by Hot Springs Chemical Company, Hot Springs, Ark.

BIBLES IN SCHOOLS LOSE.

Legislative Committee in North Carolina Oppose Amendment to State Constitution.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 30.—At a joint meeting of the two legislative committees on constitutional amendments, held yesterday evening, there was a three hours' discussion of the proposed amendment which stipulates that "the use of the Holy Bible shall not be prohibited in schools supported wholly or in part from public taxes."

A number of the officers of the leading educational institutions of the State, aptist College presidents. Jewish rabbis, and Methodist ministers participated. After adopting an amendment offered by those who favored the submission of the proposed amendment to the people, so as to make it read, "The reading of the Holy Bible without comment by teachers shall not be prohibited, but sectarianism shall not be taught," the committees voted separately to report the proposed amendment adversely. In the senate committee the vote against it was unanimous, and in the House the vote stood 11 to 4.

KILLED BY MULATTO BOYS.

Eight Persons Slain by Drug-Crazed Youth.

Harriston, Miss., Sept. 30.—Two drug-crazed mulatto boys, brothers, began a reign of murder here Sunday morning that ended only after three white men, four negro men, and a negro woman had been killed, 20 persons wounded, and the two boys lynched.

A serious death clash between the races was prevented by the arrival, on a special train, of a company of national guardsmen from Natchez.

The trouble started at about 2 o'clock in the morning, when Walter Jones, the eldest of the two youths who started the firing, was lynched just after the soldiers arrived. His brother, Will Jones, had been shot and killed by citizens earlier in the day, and his body hanged to a telegraph pole. No further trouble is feared.

Yarmouth, England.—Two golf courses near here were ruined by militant suffragists.
